Dear Mr Galalae,

The Proctors are the responsible university officers. I have consulted them and they ask me to say that as you are not a member of the University of Oxford, it is not possible for the course of action you propose to take place on university property. If you wish consideration to be given to whether your protest might take place on public (i.e. Council owned) property in the city, you need to contact the Oxford police via the Area Commander, Oxford Police Area, Thames Valley Police, St Aldate's, Oxford OX1 1SZ (tel. UK 0845 8505505).

Yours sincerely,

Brian Gasser

Subject: hunger strike

Dear Dr. Gasser,

I would like to know who I need to contact for permission to use Oxford's grounds for a hunger strike. I intend to come to Oxford in May for a ten-day hunger strike in order to expose Oxford's complicity in spying on its students with Britain's secret service agencies under the auspices of CONTEST.

I would greatly appreciate your direction in this respect.

Sincerely,

Kevin Galalae
